GENERAL

The CRAFCO structural aggregates are specialized mineral materials designed for use in pavement patching and preservation systems, including proprietary products such as Mastic One®, Matrix® TechCrete, and other thermoplastic or polymer-modified mastics. These aggregates provide the essential load-bearing skeleton, ensuring structural integrity, skid resistance, and long-term durability under repeated traffic and environmental stresses. Aggregates are graded to provide uniform packing density, binder penetration, and surface texture appropriate for high-performance patching formulations. Materials are processed, screened, and quality-controlled to deliver consistent gradation, cleanliness, and volumetric stability in accordance with internal performance standards and modified AASHTO/ASTM test methods.

Structural Aggregate, Part No. 33033,

These are specially selected hard durable igneous aggregates that are screened to specific gradations, double washed, dried, and packaged in 50 lbs. (22.7 kg) bags. Structural Aggregate is mixed with the Binder to produce the patching product for pavement distress. Gradation requirements are as follows.
